PRECIOUS LITTLE TIME REMAINS TO GIVE WACO'S LITTLE ANGELS A MERRY CHRISTMAS!

UPDATE: We are still in need of folks to choose angel tree gifts for Talitha Koum angels. All gifts not chosen will be returned to TK on Sunday in hope of finding donations elsewhere. This would mark the first time in 25 years we have had to return requests. The pandemic and low rate of return to our beloved community has taken its toll. We need a few more people to step up and help his annual service project. If you are unable to come to the Derrick Fellowship Hall and choose a gift, please contact Becky at rebeccajwarren4@gmail.com for more information.

THIS IS WHAT UU LOVE LOOKS LIKE!

JOYS & SORROWS

Our friend Michele Brown is still at the Medical City Dallas Hospital recovering from pneumonia. She is still undergoing chemotherapy and then Stem Cell Transplant. We look forward to celebrating her return to Waco in January. Cards and letters can be sent c/o Medical City Dallas Hospital, Attn: Michele Brown, 777 Forest Lane Blvd. A, South Tower, Dallas, TX 75230.

Terri Jo Mosley is at home recovering from hip replacement surgery. Let's keep her in our thoughts.

Jane & Paul Derrick's daughter Karen reports that her Mom and Dad are "safely installed" at daughter Mary Jane's home and are "doing great! With her tremendous progress, Karen says that a "full recovery is truly possible!"

CLAUDIA'S BENCH COMES TO UUFW

The McLennan County Master Gardeners organization has donated its Claudia McLatcher Memorial Bench to UUFW. Claudia was a Master Gardener, dedicated to beautifying her beloved City of Waco. Those of us who knew Claudia and had the privilege of working with her, know she was also dedicated to the beautification of our Fellowship. After her death in January 2020, the bench was housed at the Carleen Bright Arboretum. It is now sitting outside our Sanctuary. Enjoy sitting on Claudia's blue bench anytime.
